

CONTENTS

	Foreword	v
	Contents	vii
CHAPTER 1	Introduction	9
CHAPTER 2	Judicial Review in the EC Courts: Tetra Laval and Beyond A. Meij	7
	1 Introduction	9
	2 The jurisdictional setting	9
	3 Some competition cases	11
	4 Other areas of administrative regulation	16
	5 Standard of review; some food for thought	19
	Bibliography	21
CHAPTER 3	The Scope of Review of Administrative Action From a Comparative Perspective T. Zwart	23
	1 Introduction	25
	2 The bipolar scheme created by the need for judicial review and agency autonomy	25
	3 Comprehensive review	26
	4 Limited review	28
	4.1 Limited review of discretionary acts: the Wednesbury case	28
	4.2 Limited review of facts and law: the U.S. approach	29
	5 The pragmatic and functional approach adopted by the Canadian Supreme Court	31
	5.1 Introduction	31
	5.2 The Diceyan approach	31
	5.3 The factors to be weighed by the court	32
	5.4 The standards applied by the Court	35
	6 Conclusion	35
	Bibliography	37
CHAPTER 4	Observations on Economic Proof in Economic Cases A. Ottow	39
	1 Introduction	41
	2 Competition law cases	43
	3 Market regulation cases	45
	4 Discretion of independent authorities and judicial review	46
	5 Principle of national autonomy	47

	6	Concluding observations	48
		Bibliography	49
CHAPTER 5		Judicial Review after Tetra Laval; Some Observations From a European Administrative Law Point of View
		M. Schimmel and R. Widdershoven	51
	I	Introduction	53
	2	Applicability of the ' Tetra Laval standard' in other areas of Community law	54
	2.1	Public health policy	54
	2.2	Environmental policy	56
	2.3	Counterterrorism policy	58
	2.4	Conclusion	60
	3	Two stages of review	61
	3.1	Appraisal v. establishment	61
	3.2	Review of the establishment stage	63
	3.3	Review of the appraisal stage	65
	3.3.1	Discretion and margin of appreciation	65
	3.3.2	Statement of reasons	66
	4	Judicial review and procedural finality	68
	5	The European standard of review and national courts	71
	6	Concluding remarks	74
		Bibliography	77
CHAPTER 6		Administrative Discretion and Judicial Review in Germany; New Tendencies in the Field of Economic Regulation
		J. Terhechte	79
	I	Introduction	81
	2	The general background of judicial review in Germany	83
	2.1	The central role of the judiciary in the German legal order	83
	2.2	The constitutional background	84
	3	The distinction between discretion and the interpretation of open textured legal phrases under German administrative law	85
	3.1	Ermessen and Beurteilungsspielsraum as discretionary elements	85
	3.2	Traditional fields of executive discretion without judicial review	87
	4	Some remarks on the enforcement process in Germany	88
	5	The case of judicial review of sectoral regulator's decisions	89

CONTENTS

5.1	Current standards	89
5.2	The Federal Administrative Court and regulatory discretion	90
5.3	'Regulatory Discretion' as an overall concept?	91
6	The case of judicial review of decisions by the National Competition Authority	92
6.1	Legal background	93
6.2	Practice of the courts	94
7	Towards a mere marginal standard of judicial review and the separation of powers	95
	Bibliography	97
CHAPTER 7	Judicial Review in French Competition Law and Economic Regulation; A Post Commission v. Tetra Laval Assessment N. Petit and L. Rabeux	103
1	Introduction	105
2	An overview of the French judicial system in the pre-Tetra Laval world	106
2.1	The French courts' system: NCAs and NRAs under the scrutiny of two judges	106
2.2	General principles governing the intensity of judicial review pre-Tetra Laval – in-depth assessment vs. 'sliding-scale' approach	109
2.2.1	The duty of the Paris Court of Appeal to scrutinise thoroughly decisions submitted to its review	109
2.2.2	The Council of State's fluctuating standard of judicial review	110
2.3	Consequences and outcome of the French courts' judicial review	113
3	ECJ case law on judicial review and its relevance for the French courts	114
3.1	Standard of judicial review applied by EC courts	114
3.2	Relevance of the EC standard of judicial review in the French courts system	116
4	What is the standard of judicial review in France post- Tetra Laval ?	118
4.1	Intensive standard of judicial review in national competition cases	118
4.2	Marginal standard of review in the field of sector-specific regulation	121
5	Conclusions	122
	Bibliography	125

CHAPTER 8	Tetra Laval à la Hongroise
	K. Cseres and J. Langer	127
I	Introduction	129
2	Background	129
2.1	Act on the Prohibition of Unfair and Restrictive Market Practices	129
2.2	Recent amendments	130
3	Judicial review in general	130
3.1	Introduction	130
3.2	Legal standard for the GVH	130
3.3	Judicial review by lower courts	131
4	Judicial review of competition cases	133
4.1	Statistics	133
4.2	Landmark cases	134
4.2.1	General remarks	134
4.2.2	Restrictive agreements	134
4.2.3	Abuse of dominance	135
4.2.4	Acquisition of Népszabadság : pre-‘Tetra Laval standard’	140
5	Conclusions	143
	Bibliography	144
CHAPTER 9	Judicial Review of Regulatory Decisions in Italy; Changing the Formula and Keeping the Substance?
	R. Caranta and B. Marchetti	145
I	Introduction	147
2	The Italian experience: the ‘technical discretion’ and the idea of a marginal judicial review	150
3	The Antitrust Authority and the Administrative Courts.	153
4	General remarks on the case law on the margins of review on antitrust decisions	155
4.1	The insurance cartel: no intense review	156
4.2	The CONSIP case: a more intense review	157
4.3	The Codacons case: consolidation of change	159
5	The law as it stands: the ambiguity of the jet fuel cases	159
6	Concluding remarks on antitrust decisions and the scope of judicial review in light of European developments	165
	Bibliography	169

CHAPTER IO	More Intensive Judicial Review in Competition Law and Economic Regulation in the Netherlands; Vice or Virtue?
	S. Lavrijssen	173
I	Setting the scene	175
I.1	Structure	177
2	Definitions and concepts	178
2.1	Judicial review and discretion	178
2.2	Standard of review, standard of proof and discretion	178
2.3	Standard of review, standard of proof and European law	180
3	Competent courts	181
4	Competition Law; Articles 81 and 82 EC	182
4.1	General remarks	182
4.2	Secon	183
4.3	T-Mobile	184
4.3.1	Preliminary questions and answers	185
4.4	Competition law: Merger control	186
4.4.1	General remarks	186
4.4.2	Nuon/Reliant	187
4.4.2.1	District Court	187
4.4.2.2	CBB	188
4.5	Observations	189
5	Judicial review in the electronic communications sector	191
5.1	General remarks	191
5.2	Mobile terminating access tariffs	193
6	The role of the European Commission	194
7	Conclusion	196
CHAPTER II	Judicial Review in Competition Law and Economic Regulation in Spain
	I. Del Guayo	203
I	Introduction	205
2	Some key concepts and institutions	205
3	Constitutional framework	207
3.1	The Spanish Constitution and the economy	207
3.2	The Government, the Public Administration, and the Judiciary	208
3.3	Judicial review of governmental and administrative decisions	209
4	Judicial review of administrative and governmental decisions on economic issues	211

5	Judicial review in economic concentration cases and the influence of Tetra Laval	212
5.1	General remarks	212
5.2	Tetra Laval in the case law of the Supreme Court	215
5.2.1	The Sogecable/Vía Digital case	215
5.2.2	The Endesa/Gas Natural case	217
6	Judicial review within the context of the new Defence of Competition Act 2007	219
7	Concluding remarks	221
	Bibliography	223
CHAPTER 12	Judicial Review in Economic Regulation and Competition Law in Sweden
	E. Edwardsson
1	Introduction	227
2	Judicial review in Sweden: a different approach	228
2.1	The constitutional justification	228
2.2	The influence of the ECHR	229
2.3	Other types of judicial review	230
2.4	The main form of judicial review – administrative-judicial review	231
3	Competent courts and judicial control	232
3.1	The Swedish court structure	232
3.2	The competent authorities and the review of their decisions	232
3.3	Principles of procedure, discretion and burden of proof	233
3.3.1	Judicial review in electronic communication cases	233
3.3.2	Judicial review in competition law cases	234
3.3.3	Conclusion	235
4	The case law: lack of landmark cases	236
4.1	Electronic communications, an example	236
4.2	Competition law	236
5	Concluding remarks: the impact of the Tetra Laval case	237
	Bibliography	239
CHAPTER 13	Judicial Review of the Decisions of the Competition Authorities and the Economic Regulators in the UK
	C. Graham	241
1	Introduction	243
2	Setting the scene	245
3	Enforcing competition law	247
4	Challenging the decisions of the competition authorities	250

5	Challenging the decisions of the economic regulators	252
6	Judicial review of decisions of economic regulators	254
6.1	Tetra Laval in the CAT	258
6.2	Judicial review in the CAT	259
7	Conclusions	261
	Bibliography	263
CHAPTER 14	European and National Standards of Review: Differentiation or Convergence
	S. Lavrijssen, A. Gerbrandy, O. Essens	265
1	The interpretation and practical meaning of Tetra Laval	267
1.1	Judicial review under Article 230 EC	267
1.1.1	Types and standards of review	268
1.2	Tetra Laval : a more intensive application of the legality review?	269
1.3	The Tetra Laval standard; analytical clarifications	271
2	Legal consequences for the national courts	272
3	Comparative approach: the standards of review and proof as applied by national courts	274
3.1	A variety of legal systems	274
3.2	Constraints	275
3.3	Concepts	276
3.3.1	Judicial review	276
3.3.2	Discretion	277
3.3.3	Standards of review	278
3.3.4	Appeal on the merits	280
3.4	The application of standards of review in practice	281
3.5	Influence of EC law	285
3.5.1	Little influence of EC law	285
3.5.2	Possible convergence between European and national standards of review	287
4	Concluding remarks	288
	Bibliography	291
	Cases	294
	Contributors	306