

	Preface and acknowledgements	vii
	Contents	ix
	Abbreviations	xx
	Introduction	3
CHAPTER 1	Environmental, Socioeconomic and Political Background of the European Common Fisheries Policy
I	Overview of multiple demands and pressures on the EC coastal zones and marine ecosystem	9
I.1	Overview of human activities affecting Europe's coasts and marine waters	9
I.2	Overview of the nature and socioeconomic significance of the Community fisheries sector	10
2	State of the marine environment throughout the Community	12
2.1	State of the fish stocks of Community interest	12
2.2	State of the Community marine ecosystem in relation to fish stocks	13
3	Formation of the Common Fisheries Policy	15
3.1	The central elements of the Common Fisheries Policy	15
3.2	The structure of the political debate	17
3.3	The interests of the Member States and negotiations in the Council	17
3.4	The Commission's role in the CFP	19
3.5	The political dialogue with the European Parliament	21
3.6	Public perception and its integration in the CFP	22
CHAPTER 2	Institutional and Organisational Structures
I	Community competences under the Treaty	27
I.1	Legal bases	27
I.2	Territorial scope	32
I.3	Vertical competence order	33
I.3.1	Exclusive and shared competences	33
I.3.2	Fisheries management (internally and externally)	35
I.3.3	Structural policies and market organisation	37
I.3.4	Implementation, control and enforcement	38
I.3.5	Trade policy	40
I.4	Horizontal competence order	41
2	Substantive and territorial scope of CFP secondary legislation	43
3	Distribution of tasks – centralisation v. decentralisation	44
3.1	Re-delegated powers	45
3.1.1	Member States emergency measures	45
3.1.2	Member States conservation and management measures within the 12 nm mile zone	45
3.1.3	Member States measures applying to vessels flying their flag	46

3.1.4	Member States option to adopt technical management measures	46
3.1.5	Right to reserve fishing in the 12 nm zone to Member States nationals	46
3.1.6	Allocation of quotas assigned to the Member States	48
3.1.7	Member States tasks regarding the market organisation	49
3.1.8	Member States tasks regarding structural policies	49
3.2	Unregulated fisheries issues	50
4	Regulating fisheries for environmental purposes	51
4.1	Vertical Competences with regards to environmental policies	53
4.2	Horizontal competences	53
4.3	Legal evaluation of the competence conflict	56
4.4	Conflicting principles	56
4.5	Possible solutions	58
5	Participation rights of stakeholders within the CFP legislative process	58
5.1	Consultative Committee on Fisheries and Aquaculture	59
5.2	Regional Advisory Councils	59
5.3	Assessment and critique	60
CHAPTER 3	Fisheries Management under the CFP
I	Fisheries management instruments	65
I.1	Pertinent terms and concepts under the Community's management regime	65
I.2	Quantitative catch and effort limitations	66
I.2.1	Total allowable catch and quotas	66
I.2.1.1	The creation of the Community TAC system	66
I.2.1.2	The annual setting of TACs	68
I.2.1.3	Quotas, quota flexibility and quota hopping	69
I.2.1.4	Legal commitment to sustainability, precaution and ecosystems	72
I.2.1.5	Critique and perspectives	75
I.2.2	Effort limitations	79
I.2.2.1	The development of the effort regime	79
I.2.2.2	The current effort regime	81
I.2.2.3	Critique of the current effort regime	83
I.3	Licensing system	84
I.4	Technical measures	86
I.4.1	The current technical measures	86
I.4.2	Critique and perspectives of the current technical measures	89
I.5	Procedural management instruments	91
I.5.1	Multi-annual measures	91
I.5.1.1	Recovery plans	92
I.5.1.2	Management plans	92

CONTENTS

1.5.1.3	Critique of the multi-annual measures	93
1.5.2	Emergency measures	95
1.6	The Mediterranean	96
1.6.1	Mediterranean specificity	96
1.6.2	Community measures regulating Mediterranean fisheries	97
1.6.3	General Fisheries Commission for the Mediterranean Area	98
2	Community control and enforcement measures	99
2.1	The Community control regime	99
2.1.1	The satellite-based vessel monitoring system (VMS)	100
2.1.2	Monitoring of catches	101
2.1.3	Monitoring effort limitations	104
2.1.4	Monitoring of Community vessels in third country-, high seas-, and Community waters	106
2.1.5	Monitoring of third country vessels in Community waters	106
2.1.6	Control of technical measures	108
2.1.7	Control of structural measures	108
2.1.8	Control of the market organisation	110
2.2	Community control over Member States	110
2.2.1	Evaluation and control of the application of management measures	111
2.2.2	Monitoring of quota uptake and the closing of fisheries upon quota exhaustion	112
2.3	Cooperation requirements, mutual inspection rights, Community inspectors	113
2.4	Community Fisheries Control Agency	116
2.5	Community rules on enforcement	118
2.6	Community sanction powers	119
2.6.1	Quota deductions	119
2.6.1.1	Art. 23(4) of Council Regulation 2371/02 and Commission Regulation 147/07	119
2.6.1.2	Objectives and effects	121
2.6.1.3	Effects on fishers	122
2.6.1.4	Legal form of the Commission's implementing measure – tertiary legislation	122
2.6.1.5	Critique	122
2.6.2	Commission's right to take preventive measures	123
2.6.3	Commission's right to suspend financial assistance	123
2.6.4	Infringement procedures	124
2.7	Implementation deficits	125
3	Small-scale coastal fisheries management	128
3.1	Characteristics of Community small-scale coastal fisheries	129
3.2	Concepts and definitions of small-scale coastal fisheries under Community law	129
3.3	Community measures	130

3.3.1	The exception to the principle of free access	131
3.3.2	National conservation measures instituted within the 12 nm zones	132
3.3.2.1	Fisheries law in Germany	132
3.3.2.2	National conservation measures	133
3.3.2.3	Conservation measures in Lower-Saxony	133
3.4	Small-scale fisheries interest representation	135
3.4.1	Situation of small scale fishers in Germany – Lower-Saxony	136
3.4.2	Interest representation at the Community level	136
3.5	Analysis and interim summary	137
4	Finding the right combination of management instruments	138
CHAPTER 4	Community Instruments Promoting Fisheries
I	Sources of promotion to the Community's fisheries sectors	146
2	Forms and impact of promotion on fisheries resources – theories and facts	146
3	Promotional measures within the Community's structural policies	151
3.1	Administrative aspects of the CFP's structural policy	151
3.1.1	The Co-financing System	152
3.1.2	The administration of CFP structural aid	152
3.2	Objectives and principles of the structural policies	154
3.3	Promotion from 1970 to 1982 – the build-up	155
3.3.1	Structure, scope and objectives of the central regulation	155
3.3.2	Fleet renewals, modernisation of vessels and improvements to fishing ports	156
3.3.3	Promoting the cod-fishing sector	157
3.3.4	Aquaculture	158
3.3.5	Processing and marketing sector	158
3.4	Promotion from 1983 to 1986: Build-up, territorial expansion and restructuring	159
3.4.1	Changes and Innovations	160
3.4.2	Adjusting capacity – Multiannual Guidance Programme I (1983-86)	160
3.4.3	Construction, modernisation and conversion of the fleet – Regulation 2908/83	161
3.4.4	Protect and making fuller use of coastal areas – Regulation 2908/83	163
3.4.5	Promoting exploratory expeditions and joint-ventures – Regulation 2909/83	163
3.4.6	Subsidising temporary or permanent withdrawals – Directive 515/83	164
3.4.7	Support for sardine canning plants	165
3.4.8	Integrated Programmes for the Mediterranean	165

CONTENTS

3.5	Promotion from 1987 to 1993 – Build-up, territorial expansion and restructuring	167
3.5.1	Changes and innovations	167
3.5.2	Adjusting capacity – Multi-annual Guidance Programme II (1987-91)	168
3.5.3	Promoting construction, modernisation and conversion of the fleet	169
3.5.4	Protecting and making greater use of coastal areas	170
3.5.5	Promoting exploratory expeditions and joint-ventures	170
3.5.6	Subsidising temporary and permanent withdrawals	171
3.5.7	Financial aid for material investment in facilities at fishing ports	172
3.5.8	Financial aid for the search of new market outlets	172
3.5.9	Specific measures	172
3.5.10	Subsidising the processing and marketing segment	173
3.5.11	1990 Reform – Changes and innovations	174
3.6	Promotion from 1994 to 1999 – Build-up, territorial expansion and restructuring	176
3.6.1	Changes and innovations	177
3.6.2	Sectoral Plans, aid applications and Community Programmes	178
3.6.3	The third and fourth Multiannual Guidance Programmes (1993-02)	179
3.6.4	Promotion of construction, modernisation and conversion of the fleet	182
3.6.5	Protecting and making fuller use of coastal areas	183
3.6.6	Promoting exploratory expeditions and joint-ventures	183
3.6.7	Supporting the scrapping, permanent transfer or re-assignment	183
3.6.8	Financial aid for the material investment in fishing ports	185
3.6.9	Financial aid for the search of new market outlets	185
3.6.10	Promotion of operations by trade members	185
3.6.11	Subsidising the processing and marketing segment	185
3.6.12	Social measures	186
3.6.13	1998 Amendments – Extension of social measures	186
3.6.14	The Community Initiative PESCA	187
3.7	Promotion from 2000-2006 – A turnaround?	189
3.7.1	Changes and innovations	189
3.7.2	The advancement of Community Programmes and sectoral plans	190
3.7.3	Promoting construction, modernisation and conversion	190
3.7.4	Joint enterprises	192
3.7.5	Subsidising temporary or permanent withdrawals	192

3.7.6	Encouraging capital investment for the protection and development of aquatic resources, aquaculture, fishing port facilities, processing and marketing and inland fishing	194
3.7.7	Finding and promoting new market outlets	195
3.7.8	Socioeconomic measures	195
3.7.9	Support for small-scale coastal fishing	196
3.7.10	Temporary cessation of activities and other financial compensations	196
3.7.11	Innovative measures and technical assistance	197
3.7.12	Operations by members of the trade	198
3.7.13	Reform in 2002 – The new common fisheries policy	198
3.7.13.1	Adjustment of fishing capacity and the new entry-exit scheme	198
3.7.13.2	Fleet renewal and equipment or modernisation of vessels	200
3.7.13.3	Scrapping of vessels	200
3.7.13.4	The permanent transfer of vessels	201
3.7.13.5	Socioeconomic measures	201
3.7.13.6	Temporary cessation of fishing activities and other financial compensation	201
3.8	Promotion from 2007 to 2013 – the European Fisheries Fund	203
3.8.1	Changes and innovations	204
3.8.2	National Strategic Plans and National Programmes	207
3.8.3	Priority Axis 1: Measures for the adaptation of the Community fishing fleet	209
3.8.3.1	Public aid for the permanent cessation of fishing activities	210
3.8.3.2	Public aid for the temporary cessation of fishing activities	210
3.8.3.3	Investments on board fishing vessels and selectivity	211
3.8.3.4	Small-scale coastal fishing	212
3.8.3.5	Socioeconomic compensation for management of the Community fishing fleet	213
3.8.4	Priority Axis 2: Aquaculture, inland fishing, processing and marketing of fishery and aquaculture products	214
3.8.4.1	Productive investments in aquaculture	214
3.8.4.2	Aqua-environmental measures	215
3.8.4.3	Public health measures	215
3.8.4.4	Animal health measures	216
3.8.4.5	Inland fishing	216
3.8.4.6	Processing and marketing of fisheries and aquaculture products	217
3.8.5	Priority Axis 3: measures of common interest	218
3.8.5.1	Collective actions	218
3.8.5.2	Measures intended to protect and develop aquatic fauna and flora	219

3.8.5.3	Fishing ports, landing sites and shelters	219
3.8.5.4	Development of new markets and promotional campaigns	219
3.8.5.5	Pilot projects	220
3.8.5.6	Modification for reassignment of fishing vessels	220
3.8.6	Priority Axis 4: Sustainable development of fisheries areas	221
3.8.7	Priority Axis 5: Technical assistance	222
4	Instruments promoting fisheries in the market organisation	223
5	Other sources of assistance to the Community's fisheries sector	225
6	The future of promotion under the World Trade Organization (WTO)	227
CHAPTER 5	Towards an Integrated Approach to Promotion and Management of Fisheries
1	The logic and limits of promotion and management	231
2	The state of integration of fisheries promotion and management	233
2.1	The first phase, 1970 – 1982	234
2.2	The second phase, 1983 – 1986	235
2.3	The third phase, 1987 – 1993	237
2.4	The fourth phase, 1994 – 1999	238
2.5	The fifth phase, 2000 – 2006	240
2.6	The sixth phase, 2007 – 2008	242
3	Practical lessons to be learned from CFP experiences	244
CHAPTER 6	Access to Justice
1	Access to judicial review	251
2	Treaty provisions on access	251
2.1	Standing of privileged applicants	252
2.2	Standing for non-privileged private parties and interests groups	252
2.2.1	Causes of action	252
2.2.2	The 'direct concern' criteria	253
2.2.3	The 'individual concern' criteria	254
2.2.4	Standing of interest groups and environmental organisations	256
2.2.5	Indirect access	258
3	Recent critique	258
4	Recent developments	259
4.1	The Aarhus Convention	260
4.2	The Aarhus Regulation 1367/06	261
4.3	Case T-91/07 WWF UK Ltd. v. Council	263
4.3.1	Order of the CFI	264

4.3.2	Comments and criticism of the decision in Case T-91/07 WWF v. Council	267
5	Conclusion	269
CHAPTER 7 Legal Review of Measures Adopted under the CFP
I	Compatibility of the CFP regime with international law management requirements	273
I.1	Harvesting limits	274
I.1.1	1982 UNCLOS	274
I.1.1.1	Territorial sea	274
I.1.1.2	Exclusive Economic Zone	275
I.1.1.3	High seas	278
I.1.2	1995 Fish Stocks Agreement (FSA)	279
I.1.3	Compatibility of CFP measures	280
I.2	Interdependency of stocks with other species and ecosystems	281
I.2.1	Requirements under 1982 UNCLOS and the FSA	281
I.2.2	Compatibility of CFP measures and practices	282
I.3	Assessing, collecting, sharing and using scientific data	283
I.3.1	Requirements under 1982 UNCLOS and FSA	283
I.3.2	Compatibility of CFP measures and practices	284
I.4	Control and enforcement	284
I.4.1	1982 UNCLOS	285
I.4.2	FSA	285
I.4.3	Compliance Agreement	286
I.4.4	Compatibility of CFP measures and practices	287
I.5	International cooperation requirements	287
I.5.1	1982 UNCLOS	288
I.5.2	FSA	288
I.5.3	Compliance Agreements	289
I.5.4	Compatibility of CFP measures and practices	289
I.6	International legal instruments on the promotion of fisheries	292
I.6.1	Code of Conduct and the IPOA for the Management of Fishing Capacity	292
I.6.2	Obligations under the Agreement on Subsidies and Countervailing Measures	293
I.6.3	Compatibility of CFP measures and practices	294
2	Fundamental rights implications for fishing limitations under Community law	296
2.1	Nature of fishing rights under international, Community and national law	297
2.2	The protection of fundamental rights to fishing opportunities under Community Law	300

CONTENTS

2.2.1	Fundamental rights protection against fishing limitations	300
2.2.1.1	Right of ownership	300
2.2.1.2	Right to choose and practice a trade or profession	303
2.2.1.3	Fundamental environmental right	304
2.2.1.4	Principle of the protection of legitimate expectations	304
2.2.2	Obligation to protect fish stocks	305
2.2.2.1	Obligation to manage fisheries resources properly	305
2.2.2.2	Title to sustainable and effective fisheries management	307
2.3	Conclusion	308
3	Legality of Commission sanction powers under the CFP	309
3.1	Brief summary of Art. 23(4) of Regulation 2371/02 and Commission Regulation 147/07	310
3.2	Legality of Art. 23(4) and Regulation 147/07	310
3.2.1	The Community's general and the CFP's particular implementation deficits	310
3.2.2	Community sanction competence under Art. 37(2), para. 3 of the Treaty	312
3.2.3	Proportionality and subsidiarity	313
3.2.4	Compatibility with Arts. 202, para. 3 and 211, para. 4 of the Treaty	314
3.2.5	Hierarchy of norms	316
3.3	Conclusion	317
Summary and Conclusions
1	The environmental, socioeconomic and political background of the CFP	321
2	Institutional and organisational structures	323
3	Management – failures and success	326
3.1	Conservation measures	326
3.2	Control and enforcement measures	329
3.3	Small-scale coastal fisheries	330
3.4	Finding the right combination of management instruments	331
4	Promotional measures	332
5	The integration of promotion and management	334
6	Access to justice	337
7	Legal review of measures adopted under the CFP	338
7.1	Compatibility of the CFP with international management requirements	339
7.2	Fundamental rights implications for fishing limitations	341
7.3	Commission quota deduction competence	342
	Bibliography	346
	Table of Cases	366
	Legal Acts and Documents	372