

From the Editors 1

Towards a European Administrative Procedure Act

Dr. Anne Meuwese, Dr. Ymre Schuurmans, Prof. Dr. Wim Voermans 3

1	Introduction: Towards ‘New Administrative Law’ in Europe?	3
2	Comparing Two Traditions in Legal Protection Against Administrative and Regulatory Action	5
2.1	Administration, Regulation and Governance	5
2.2	Legitimizing Administrations	7
3	Problem zone 1: ‘Notice and Comment’ and Information-Base in EU Regulatory Procedures	10
3.1	‘Regulating Regulation’ through Better Regulation?	10
3.2	New Directions in Case Law	13
4	Problem Zone 2: The EU Framework for Agencies as a Vehicle?	16
4.1	The Rise of European Agencies	16
4.2	Governing Agencies	17
4.3	Comitology as a Contributing Factor	19
4.4	Agencification and Judicial Review	20
5	Learning from the U.S. Experience: The Administrative Procedure Act (APA)	22
6	Conclusion: A Preliminary Verdict on the Desirability of a European APA	27

Seven Challenges for EU Administrative Law

Prof. Dr. Herwig C.H. Hofmann 37

1	An Administrative Perspective on EU Law – Changing Perspectives of EU Administrative Law	37
2	Challenges from an Administrative Law Perspective	43
2.1	Allocation of Responsibilities in the EU Administrative Networks	43
2.2	Establishing a Coherent Approach to Delegation of Implementing Powers	45
2.3	Reinforcing Accountability in Administrative Networks	48
2.4	General Procedural Rules for EU Administration?	50
2.5	Composite Procedures	52
2.6	Establishment and Use of Information	53
3	Overarching Challenge: Accountability of Networks	56

The Allocation of a Limited Number of Authorisations; Some General Requirements from European Law

Johan Wolswinkel, LL.M., M.Sc.

61

1	Introduction	61
2	Limited Authorisation Schemes	63
2.1	Terminology	63
2.2	Key Questions	67
3	Relevant Sources of European Law	69
3.1	Fundamental Freedoms: Goods and Services	69
3.2	Services Directive	71
3.3	Specific Service Areas: Radio Frequencies and Gambling Activities	73
3.4	Authorisations and Service Concessions	74
4	Lawfulness of Limiting the Number of Authorisations	78
4.1	Lawfulness of Authorisation Schemes	78
4.2	Lawfulness of Limited Authorisation Schemes	78
4.3	Natural or Technical Scarcity	81
4.4	Natural or Technical Scarcity: An Overriding Reason?	84
5	Selection Procedure: Grant and Renewal	87
5.1	Equal Treatment and Transparency: Service Concessions	87
5.2	Limited Authorisation Schemes Because of Natural or Technical Scarcity	90
5.3	Other Limited Authorisation Schemes	94
6	Scope of the Authorisation	97
6.1	General	97
6.2	Temporal Scope	98
6.3	Territorial Scope	100
7	Concluding Remarks	102

Procedural Convergence in Competition Law; Towards a Spontaneous Ius Commune?

Dr. Anna Gerbrandy

105

1	Introduction	105
2	Dutch Competition Law and the Decentralised Application of EC Competition Law	106
3	Convergence	110
4	Examples of Bottom-Up Convergence in Competition Law	116
4.1	Standing rights and the Complainant in Competition Law	116
4.2	The Competence to Act Pursuant to a Complaint	120

4.3	A Policy of Priorities	121
4.4	Standing Rights for Complainants	124
4.5	Presumption of Proof	127
5	The Wider Picture and Conclusions	132

National Judicial Autonomy; The Example of National European Law Precedents in the Dutch Case-Law on the Free Movement of Services and the Freedom of Establishment

Herman van Harten 135

1	Introduction	135
2	Concept	137
2.1	Horizontal European Precedent Law	138
2.2	Vertical European Precedent Law	138
2.3	National European Precedent Law	139
3	Practice	140
3.1	Clarification of the Law	140
3.2	Abstract Judgments of Basic Tenets	145
3.3	Well-Founded Judgments	147
4	Consequences	148
4.1	The Existence	148
4.2	The Meaning	149
4.3	Correction Mechanisms	150
5	Concluding Remarks and Discussion Topics	152

Pleading for European Comparative Administrative Law; What is the Place for Comparative Law in Europe?

Prof. Dr. Roberto Caranta 155

1	What is the Place for Comparative Law in Europe?	155
2	Reinforcing the Flow of Information	156
3	Precedents From Other Jurisdictions	160
4	National Precedents in Community Courts	164
5	Target Areas for Comparative Research in Administrative Law	168
6	Conclusions	172